

Psalm 114

Isaac Watts
Hugh Wilson

(Tune: 208 Alas! and Did My Savior Bleed?)

Adapted by Tim and Julie Tennent

1. <sup>1</sup>When Is - r'el out of E - gypt came, from those they dwelt a - mong;—
2. <sup>2</sup>Then Ju - dah did God's house be - come, and Is - r'el His do - main.—
3. <sup>4</sup>The moun-tains, they did skip like rams; the hills, like lit - tle lambs.—
4. <sup>6</sup>Why, moun-tains, did you skip like rams? You hills, like lambs a - dored?—
5. <sup>7/8</sup>The God of Ja - cob's pres - ence, He who from the rock did bring—

— When Ja - cob's house went out from those that were of for - eign tongue;
— <sup>3</sup>The sea did look and fled a - way; the Jor - dan did the same.
— <sup>5</sup>Why was it, sea, that you did flee? Why turn back, Jor-dan's dam?
— <sup>7</sup>O trem-ble, earth, for you are in The pres - ence of the Lord!
— a pool of wa - ter, turned hard rock in - to a foun-tain spring.
