

Psalm 18

TITLE: To the Chief Musician a Psalm of David, the servant of the Lord, who spake unto the Lord the words of this song in the day that the Lord delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul.

1. I love you, O my Lord, my strength, my Rock and For-tress strong.
 2. You faith-ful to the faith-ful are; to up-right ones up-right;
 3. As for my God, His way is right; His word is true and tried;

My trust for my de-liv-er-ance does to the Lord be-long.
 Pure to the pure, but shrewd to those whose path turns from the Light.
 He is a ref-uge to all those who do in him con-fide.

My God, my Rock, in whom I trust; a ref-uge un-to me;
 For You will save the hum-ble ones, who low in grief do lie;
 For who is God be-sides the Lord? Who is a rock and stay?

The horn of my sal-va-tion and my strong high tow'r is He.
 But will bring low the ar-ro-gant, who have a haugh-ty eye.
 Tis God that girds me with His strength, and per-fect makes my way.
