

PSALM 32:1-7

Hap-py are they who are for-giv'n,
Who have been par-doned for their sins.
Blest they in whom God finds no wrong
And who are free from all de-ceit.

When I did not con-fess my sins,
I cried un-til I was worn out.
You pun-ished me till strength was drained
Like moist-ure dried by sum-mer's heat.

Then I con-fessed my sins to you;
I did not hide what I had done,
But said, "I will con-fess my sin."
And you for-gave me all my guilt.

Let saints pray to you when in need;
When trou-bles flood, they won't be reached.
You hide me, sav-ing me from woe;
Sur-round-ing me, you keep me safe.

METER: LM
TUNE: "Just As I Am"

Reprinted by permission of the publisher from Sing the Psalms! by Dale A. Schoening. Copyright 1988 Dale A. Schoening.

PSALM 32:1-7

Hap-py are they who are for-giv'n,
Who have been par-doned for their sins.
Blest they in whom God finds no wrong
And who are free from all de-ceit.

When I did not con-fess my sins,
I cried un-til I was worn out.
You pun-ished me till strength was drained
Like moist-ure dried by sum-mer's heat.

Then I con-fessed my sins to you;
I did not hide what I had done,
But said, "I will con-fess my sin."
And you for-gave me all my guilt.

Let saints pray to you when in need;
When trou-bles flood, they won't be
reached.
You hide me, sav-ing me from woe;
Sur-round-ing me, you keep me safe.

METER: LM
TUNE: "Just As I Am"

Reprinted by permission of the publisher from Sing the Psalms! by Dale A. Schoening. Copyright 1988 Dale A. Schoening.