

Chapter 4

The Remedy for Sin

1. What does the author claim is the remedy for sin? p.33 Do you agree?
2. How does the author define the gospel? p.33
3. The author gives three (3) reasons to take a good look at the gospel before getting specific about our respectable sins and how to deal with them. What are they? p.33-35.
4. List two (2) benefits, according to the author, that accrue to us when we have the assurance that God no longer counts our sin against us. What desire can these two (2) produce in us? (35-36).
5. What does the author mean by “preach the gospel to ourselves daily”? How can we personalize the gospel to ourselves? Galatians 2:20 and 1 John 4:10. p. 36.
6. How does the author preach the gospel to himself daily? p. 37.